

New District Protocol for Head Lice

Students with Possible Head Lice in the Office

Classroom checks recommended when more than two students are found with active lice in a classroom.

Consider educational presentation to students when head lice becomes a concern in any classroom.

